OLD TOWN GRILL

Celebrating 40 Years of offering "The Best of Everything"

703-777-7246

"One of the 25 best restaurants East of the Mississippi."

~ The New York Times

At the Old Town Grill in Leesburg, Virginia, diners can lift their forks and goblets in colonial surroundings, while eating and drinking a bit of history.

Each dish is faithfully prepared from an 18th Century recipe. These recipes were gathered by the staff who spent time researching at The Library of Congress and The National Archives poring through old letters and diaries. From the Green Herb Soup, to the Sally Lunn Bread, to the Roast Prime Rib with Yorkshire Pudding, to the Rum and Black Walnut Pie, the entire menu reads like an 18th Century history of cuisine.

The Old Town Grill offers a festive place to dine year round, but during the holiday season the restaurant really comes alive. Holiday events include special traditional dinners on Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and Mother's Day, and dinner and entertainment on New Year's Eve.

We are located in the heart of historic Old Town Leesburg at 15 South King Street, serving lunch and dinner daily, and a Sunday brunch.

THE COLONIAL INN

Ambiance of a Bygone Time

703-777-5000 • 1-800-392-1332

"Leesburg's Colonial Inn offers the ambiance of a bygone time" ~ AAA World

In colonial times, Leesburg blossomed by being at the crossroads of two heavily traveled highways, Alexandria Turnpike (now Route 7) and the Carolina Trail (now Route 15). Inns and taverns flourished on the narrow streets and brick sidewalks, serving the weary traveler.

Tucked away among the many store-fronts along historic South King street in Leesburg is the beautiful late 1700's stone framed entrance to the Colonial Inn, crowned with an arch of antique brick, the same stone used in our Nation's Capitol Building. In 1863 this building was awarded "most Architecturally Significant" in the state.

The Colonial Inn offers its guests the "Best of Everything", just as it was served to George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and James Madison in days past.

The Colonial Inn offers a complimentary full breakfast for up to two guests.

THE KING'S COURT TAVERN

An Authentic British Pub

703-777-5005

In colonial days, a traveler stopping at a tavern not only would receive a good meal and a glass of spirits, but would likely hear a good story or two while he puffed on his long clay pipe. In those days, a tavern was more than just a place to eat and drink, it was an experience. It still is today at The King's Court Tavern.

The King's Court Tavern, at 19 South King Street in historic Leesburg retains the genteel atmosphere and ambiance that was enjoyed by our forefathers. The tavern offers you a special gathering place, where the best food and drink are served in a comfortable, friendly ale-house setting with nightly entertainment. Open for lunch, dinner, or light snacking everyday. Happy Hours are Monday through Friday from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.
